

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Mayor Harrison better. May attend council meeting Monday.

Ludwig Rasmison, 21, 6738 S. Green st., arrested as suspect. Believed to be man who has been attacking girls in Englewood.

James T. Brady, attorney for David Drozdowicz in arson trial, criticized Judge Sullivan's attitude. Rebuked by court.

Christian Flegel, Kulm, N. D., came to sea town. Found wandering in dazed condition. Robbed and drugged.

Mary Bartelme will speak on "Social Causes of Child Delinquency," at Grace Church open forum, Wabash av. and 15th st., Sunday evening, March 1.

Mrs. Mabel Boden, 4909 W. Erie st., and Andrew Tines, chauffeur, 17 S. Western av., freed in kidnaping charge. Were charged with taking Mrs. Boden's daughter, Bernice, 3, from home of mother-in-law.

Edwin H. Deuter, formerly ballboy at Grand Pacific Hotel and a witness in Heppner perjury trial, held as perjurer. Taken to county jail.

Joseph Vokral, owner 1735 W. 18th st., wanted $39.75 damages from Rudolph Reiner, a former tenant. Claims Reiner brought cockroaches into flat. Jury refused to allow damages.

Government contends prices for butter and eggs are artificial. Wants to enjoin butter board.

Subway sub-committee of city council approved initial subway plan. To cost $33,885,000 and completed by 1921.

Three claim to identify "Handsome Jack" Koettters, alleged slayer of Mrs. Emma Kraft, as man seen here. $860 found on Koettters ordered impounded.

City has filed appeal from Judge Foell's decision reseating ousted school board trustees. Appeal acts as stay. No decision can be given until October.

Case of Mrs. William A. Tilden, wife of president of Fort Dearborn National Bank, charged with disorderly conduct, continued for 10 days.

Congressman A. J. Sabath returned from Washington to testify in school site investigation.

Four saloonkeepers fined for keeping open on primary day.

Steele, Wedeles & Co. filed $30,000 suit against Standard Marine Insurance Co., Liverpool. Claim 1,600 bags of walnuts were damaged in transportation by sea water.

Gold watch, marked "C. F. to J. C., Dec. 25, 1900," returned to police. Thief became conscience-stricken.

George Williams arrested, believed to have witnessed killing of Charles Ackers. Ackers was shot while looting safe of Schultze Bros.'s laundry. William denies knowledge of shooting.

Safe blowers raided Joseph O. Lane's jewelry store, 31st st. Nitroglycerine explosion wrecked store. Failed to open safe which contained $10,000.

Eleven families routed by fire at Garibaldi flats, Rush st. and Walton pl. H. J. Heidrich & Son's art store gutted.

Mrs. Bessie Harlan Shaw to be granted divorce from "Bertie" Shaw. Grounds, drunkenness.

Witness in oleo trial claims that John F. Jelke, millionaire manufacturer, knew of frauds.

Marie Stopper, 19, 2042 Tripp st., missing for week. Police searching.

PIANO PLANT BURNED OUT

Fire, supposed to have started in the boiler room, early today destroyed the Henry Detmer piano manufacturing plant, Lemoyne and Claremount avenues, with a loss estimated at $500,000. The four-story brick structure, containing a large number of partially-built instruments, was gutted in spite of the work of several hundred firemen and 50 engines.